

Days without sports activities

In every semester or during the lecture-free period, there are days when our sports activities do not take place. These are e.g. all public holidays.

Our courses also take place regularly on bridge days. The respective trainer will then discuss exceptions on site or you will receive an email from us.

Should the university management order THIS for one day, this will not affect our leisure-oriented offers

